

Frequently Asked Questions

How do I find items in this collections?

There are a number of ways to search and browse the items in the collection. The navigation bar consists of links to browse the entire collection as well as to browse castles based on location. There is also a list of suggested topics that allows users to view materials based on the status of the castle and the century of initial construction.

In addition to these browsing options, users may also search the title, subject, and country fields of the records.

What material formats are contained within this collection?

The collection consists mostly of jpeg and gif images, but also contains some videos (mp4 and wmv formats) as well as hyperlinks and PDFs.

What are the copyright restrictions to using the items in this collection?

All images and videos within the collection have been used under the Creative Commons License. Please see the license (links provided in item description) before using any items. In most cases images/videos may be used for non-commercial use as long as a citation and link to the license are provided.

How do I add tags and/or comments to an item?

When viewing the item there are links above the image to create tags or leave comments. Users can also scroll down the page to add and/or view tags and comments?

How do I print, download, or share items?

Buttons to download and print items are available above the image in the item record. When selecting to download an image there are multiple size options to choose from.

Users can share items by selecting the "Share" link that appears above the item in the record, or by using the sharing toolbar that appears on the left hand side of the screen when viewing an item record.
